Activity Form Basis.

Each year a limited number of outstanding seniors on American college and university campuses are selected to appear in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. This year eighteen students were selected from the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College. They are as follows: Richard Appleman, Janice Bentall, Gaylord Coleman, John Garrett, Mary Garrett, Paul Gates, Dorothy June Masters, Emerson Matthews, Wallace "Ted" Mueller, Meredee Myers, Marilyn Partridge, Richard Thomas, Manley Thompson, Stanley Totoraitis, Margaret Turner, Eleanor Vogel, Iris Wehrli, and Roger Wren.

Richard Appleman
Richard Burrell Appleman, Skidmore, is a pre-medical student. He is a member of the Cooperative Independents, "M" Club, and Bar-Katze. He is vice president of the student body. Last spring he was honored by the A. A. U. P. for high scholastic standing. He lettered in track. During the war "Dick" served as a First Lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps, having started out with the Bearcat Squadron of the College. After graduation he plans to attend medical school and then practice medicine.

Janice Bentall
Janice Elaine Bentall, Shenandoah, Iowa, is an English major. She is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma. During her years here in the College she has been a member of the library staff. Janice plans to be married in September and will live in St. Joseph.

Gaylord Coleman
Gaylord W. Coleman, Perry, Iowa, is a business major. He is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon, Pi Omega Pi, and CBA Club. He has been recommended for Kappa Delta Pi. During the war years he served as a Lieutenant (jg) U. S. N. R. in the Pacific for twenty-two months. After his graduation from the College he plans to teach and continue his education, on the west coast, if possible.

Junior Scholarship, freshman representative to Danforth Leadership Camp, and Tower Queen, '47. At the present time she is the president of Tri Sigma. Mary does not have exact future plans as yet, although when questioned there was some vague mention of her suppressed desire to tell a giant redwood tree. Time will tell.

Paul Gates
Paul LaVerne Gates, River Grove, Illinois, is a physical education major. He is a member of the "M" Club, Northwest Missourian, Tower Staff, charter member of Kappa Delta Pi, and CBA Club. For one year he was sports editor for the Northwest Missourian, and for the past year has served as editor-in-chief. President J. W. Jones
Returns from Hospital

Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College, is back on the campus again after spending three weeks in the hospital. Dr. Jones sustained several fractured ribs and severe bruises the night of December 14.

PRESIDENT J. W. JONES

In an automobile accident, when a car driven by a young high school boy crashed into Mr. Jones's car. The force of the impact drove the Jones automobile into an electric light pole, snapping it off a few feet above the ground, and damaging the Jones automobile extensively.

Library Features
New Book Display

"Popular Interest Books
Now on Reservation,"
Says Librarian.

One of the newest features at the library is a display of the new popular interest books. The inauguration of this new permanent feature is designed to keep the students and faculty abreast of the current literature on the book market, according to Librarian Paxton P. Price.

All of these books as they are received by the library are now put on display in their book jackets before being placed in general circulation.

The display offers to students and faculty an opportunity to inspect and sign up early for the books for one week loan.

Reservation of these books can be guaranteed by signing the book card just inside the front cover. After the books have been displayed for about one week, they will be processed and circulated among the persons whose names are on the card in the order in which they are written. New books each time will replace those which are placed in circulation.

Cards will appear in the card catalog for all those new books as they are placed in circulation.

Any of these books can be reserved at anytime by asking at the loan desk to sign the book card.

Library assistants will send each signer a written notice when his turn to borrow the book arrives. The book must be called for on that day or the person reserving it will forfeit his turn to borrow the book.

These new books will be found displayed on the radiator just to the left of the loan desk on the second floor. Among those displayed this week is a copy of James Byrne's "Speaking Frankly" which was referred to frequently by Dr. Von Schuschnigg in his address last week.

Rehabilitation Director
Addresses Speech Class

Mr. H. D. Van Horn of St. Joseph, spoke to the speech re-education class Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Van Horn is Jr. Counselor of the Vocational Rehabilitation program in the St. Joseph area.

His subject was concerned chiefly with Vocational Rehabilitation in the state of Missouri. Since this program is relatively new to most people in this part of the state, Mr. Van Horn explained its function. It is a program provided by the State Department of Education, whereby students under the age of 21 who are physically handicapped in any manner, receive state assistance in carrying out the vocational training they desire. Mr. Van Horn's lecture was in direct association with speech correction work which the class is now studying.

"Freedom of World Rests in Faith"

Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg
Addresses Major Assembly.

"As long as America thinks, it is free," according to Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg, former chancellor of Austria and prominent lecturer who spoke at the College, Tuesday evening, January 13, on the problems of Central Europe. Dr. Schuschnigg believes that we, the people of the world, must put our past behind us and start anew without prejudices and resentments, putting our faith in God or some high ideal if we are to survive this atomic age.

Is The Dead Spot
Declaring that Communism reduces man to a mere machine and deprives him of liberty and belief in God and an ideal, Schuschnigg said that battered and terrified Central Europe is the dead spot between the East and West. The nations of Central Europe will lean toward the direction from which their survival aid comes, Schuschnigg warned.

Between the two evils of German and Russian occupation, Dr. von Schuschnigg said that the Soviet was the worse.

In Solitary Confinement
The mild-mannered, white haired former chancellor referred to his solitary confinement in a German concentration camp by saying that it was during that period that he learned the English language.

Although he talked with a distinct German accent, Dr. von Schuschnigg could be followed in his talk except when he left his prepared copy and talked in an excited manner.

The speaker pointed out that the 1848 marked revolutions in governmental thinking and forms in Europe and named as the corresponding shadow to the light of these revolutions the rise of nationalism in Central Europe and the birth of Communism in the "Communist manifesto."

He said that the average European twice in one generation, 1918 and 1938, had lost all his savings. He said that through these wars and ruins of wars through the past 100 years "the Europeans cannot forget." The overwhelming of Austria ten years ago was the last and the decisive act of 100 years of national revolutions and collapse.

Not Self-Supporting
Speaking of the occupation of Central Europe, Schuschnigg said that the occupation of Central Europe's agricultural districts made it difficult for those governments to be self-supporting.

He reported that Czechoslovakia and Hungary are now practically self-supporting and that Italy is on the way to recovery, because that nation was not damaged too badly by the war and has succeeded in getting a peace treaty.

He said to understand the Central European problem, Germany must be considered as a conquered nation and Austria as a liberated nation. He said he approved the plan of allowing Germany to export as much as she could in order to give her a self-sustaining economy and pointed

Mr. Dieterich, accompanied by Mrs. Dieterich and daughter Shirley, said the weather was fine although there was a little snow the day they were in New Orleans. Mr. Dieterich said he enjoyed the elaborate meals consisting mostly of sea food.

Mr. Williams had variety in his program; consequently, the audience was able to hear favorite songs as well as less familiar ones.

As a soloist with a number of symphony orchestras, Mr. Williams has won recognition; however, he is remembered for his performances with the London Symphony Orchestra. Giving concerts in music centers in France and Germany occupied his earlier musical appearances.

His early education was obtained from the harpist for Queen Victoria and King Edward, John Thomas, and from Richard Barker, renowned teacher.

Mr. Williams' appearance was a courtesy made possible by the University of Kansas, Department of Lectures and Concert Artists.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

ON THE BALL!

As the old year of '47 faded, we know that all the students should have had pleasant memories of its activities. Let us review a few of the highlights of the fall and early winter months.

To start off the entertainment schedule for the year, the Varsity Villagers gave a get-acquainted party on the first day of school.

Many were the feelings that were injured on September 29 as Walkout Day rolled around again. The "M" Club kept order to see that the hurt feelings were properly distributed, and the senior class under the guidance of Manley Thomson, president, fed the group, urging the freshmen to their height in entertainment. The end of the day brought an evening of dancing to the music of Brad Moore and his orchestra. It was a gay suggestion that we were in for a good year.

Large crowds of loyal students turned out all season to back the Bearcats on the gridiron despite the rain that usually accompanied the games. Peppy and enthusiastic, these students flocked up to the Administration building for the after-game dances. Old timers who graduated from the College would have been amazed at the turnouts these dances received.

A great many interested future teachers helped to make the thirtieth annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association a great success. This convention was held October 9 and 10 and the co-operation of students and teachers was gratefully acknowledged by almost two thousand teachers who assembled here during those two days.

Then came the friendly vying for popular gals and guys as pledges to the various sororities and fraternities—rush week that is—and a gay week it was, with the emphasis definitely not on studying.

All during the fall quarter, up until the first of November, students, faculty members, janitors and everyone connected with the College threw a hand into helping in preparation for the grandest Homecoming that Maryville had ever had. To top off the occasion, Margaret Curry was chosen queen of the Homecoming from a closely contested field of five.

Students went all out to support the program sponsored by the Student Christian Association, known as Religious Emphasis Week, co-operating with Dr. J. Gordon Strong in making that particular week a very successful one. Dorothy Adams is president of SCA and she along with many other members of the organization did an outstanding job.

Two plays presented in November by the National Repertory Theater were entertaining. In December the Dramatics Club and Speech Department presented their first major production of the year, a three act play—"The Playboy of the Western World." This Irish folk play, written by John Synge, was the first three act play given by students of this college in some time.

Sadie Hawkins' week turned out to be about the most gay and carefree five days that students have had this year, with the dance at the end of the week being especially hilarious. Credit for this frolicking good time was given to Eddie Reece and members of the social committee over which he presides.

Following that, the first all-school formal dance was held on December 13. The annual Christmas formal dance was an event to be remembered by all of the many who attended.

The young ladies in the College showed off their talents on behalf of the Christmas Spirit in the annual presentation of the Hanging of the Greens on Sunday before vacation.

On December 18, the Tower Choir presented a highly enjoyable Christmas program in which a number of the favorite songs of the season were sung. Elaine Kabel, Donna Martin, Margaret Bowness, Karl Davis, and Bob Tebow were the soloists. The program was preceded by the program given by the Maryville Music Guild the night before. This guild has among its members many students from the College.

These events and many others are evidence that '47 had a good showing of student enthusiasm. The arrow points to the fact that students at the Northwest Missouri State College are really "on the ball." Let's keep it that way!

Library Is Receiving Many New Magazines

Many new magazines are now being received regularly at the library. Most of these new additions cater to some of the recreational interests of the students and faculty. However, there are some which will keep the reader informed about political, social, and literary affairs the world over.

The library has attempted to give its readers some foreign viewpoints by subscribing to a number of foreign publications. Among the new domestic additions are "Field and Stream," "Omni," "Esquire," "48," "The Magazine of the Year," "House and Garden," "Coronet," and "American Photography."

The new foreign publications are the "New Statesman and Nation," "Fortnightly," and "Punch," all British magazines, and one French, "L'Illustration."

All of these are available in the magazine racks in the main reading room.

Miss Hortensia Toledo, one of the former students from Peru, expects to receive her master's degree in English this spring from the Texas Christian University.

Many Bulbs Planted on Campus
Last spring fifteen hundred crocus bulbs, one thousand and eight hundred on the administration building and five hundred on the president's lawn, were planted under Mr. Montgomery's direction.

Miss Violet Hunter, Northwest Missourian adviser, will attend a luncheon in Columbia, Saturday, January 24, given by Dean Mott of the School of Journalism.

Snowflakes

We looked through the window and there in the sky
Were some little white snowflakes flying by.
The soft little snowflakes tumbled down
Until they had covered all the ground.

We made some snowflakes like the ones outside
And when we blew them, they too could glide.
There was one big difference between the two;
Ours couldn't melt as the real ones could do.

Former Faculty Member Joins Staff at Bradley

Dr. Albert Ballie Blumenthal, former social science teacher at the College, joined the Bradley University staff at Peoria, Illinois, last month as assistant professor of sociology. Dr. Blumenthal, who is regarded as one of the country's outstanding young sociologists, taught at Dartmouth before the war, and has been teaching at the University of California in Los Angeles since 1943.

Says Dr. Dildine of Dr. Blumenthal's work in the College, "He taught sociology in Maryville for two years. In that time he gave ample proof of keen and broad scholarship. He was a positive and assured advocate of such ideas as he accepted as true, and equally committed to opposition to whatever seemed wrong."

"In his chosen field of sociology, his system of thought followed very closely what had been gathered in his studies at the University of Chicago."

Blumenthal's 408 page book, "Small Town Stuff," published by the University of Chicago Press, received a full page review in both the New York Times Book section and the London Times. He has also written other publications and articles for many leading sociological journals.

President Owen, of Bradley, said, "With graduate training at the University of Chicago; with teaching experience at such institutions as Dartmouth, California, and the University of Chicago; and with extensive actual experience in social agencies such as the Los Angeles County Probation department, we feel that Dr. Blumenthal brings an unusually rich background for his work at Bradley."

The Stroller

Here we are again in another year and still going strong. Speaking of the new year, the Stroller wishes to remind you—this is leap year! Is there anyone who has failed to notice the five candidates for Tower queen? Helen Fisher, Margaret Fisher, and Joan Miller are members of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority; Dorothy Junie Masters, of the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority; and Julia Shuemaker, of the Cooperative Independents. Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself has said, "I must go to the Tower Dance and help choose the queen?"

According to the undercurrent in the Den as the voting went on during the selection of candidates, the Tower almost had a King this year. Blond and curly "Willie" Johnson, it is said, ran a strong race with the solid backing of members of the football squad. Willie's backers were "go-getters" even if he didn't quite make it—the only sign of campaigning was one on the door of the Den bearing the slogan, "Willie for Queen."

That small snow that came to Maryville the last part of the vacation was something, wasn't it? People around other parts of the country thought it wasn't much, but according to Ken Hogan, it was quite a snow. Rumor has it that "Hoag" was out in his newly acquired automobile when it started snowing and when the snow got up around the windshield, he just turned off the motor and went to sleep. Thinking he was at home in bed—Ken just stayed there and slept until the snow melted off—about four days later.

News has come of the arrival of new jackets for the Barkatze. They look mighty sharp, and the Stroller, in cahoots with John Parham, Tower editor, would like to congratulate the Barkatze!

The Stroller's little pals in the speech department have just whispered into his listening ear about a coming event. The next major production in the form of a three act play will probably be "Blythe Spirit" by Noel Coward. Sounds gay—so keep your ears and eyes open for the first announcement.

Just ask "Chuck" Rupe about the penalties of skipping class. Mrs. Canton saw to it that he carried the sharp end of her file case when he helped her move into 101 last week. Serves you right, Chuck; you're a bad boy!

Dramatics Club is planning a gala evening of fun and merrymaking in the near future. Seems it's going to be in the form of a stage party. Alpha Psi Omega (the dramatics honorary fraternity) is planning to do its part, too. Can't let out any secrets but Jeannie Bush is the heroine, and can you imagine anything more hilarious than Sammy Carpenter as a villain—or Dick Thomas as the hero—or, for that matter, Mary Clark, as a mother?

Jack Turner is fretting about his great amount of spare time. Jack works about thirteen hours each day, goes to school six hours, studies six hours, and spends the rest of his time sleeping. He regrets that he must spend so much time sleeping and would like something else to do.

Jim Merrigan, former Guilford "hot rock" basketball star, was loudly applauded by fellow classmates in Mr. Davis's gym activity class. After all these weeks, "Mumbles," as he is affectionately called in the class, broke down and brought a towel to class with him. Congratulations, Jim.

Foreign Students Enjoy Holiday Season

The prospect of spending Christmas far away from home in a foreign land is not very inviting; for Christmas, more than any other season of the year is essentially a time when one thinks of one's home and family. Homesickness becomes perhaps more prevalent; as Christmas draws near, and it was with a slight envy that we watched our American fellow-students preparing to go home.

Yet our holiday proved to be a very happy time. Some, fired by a spirit of adventure, set off on long journeys to New York, to San Francisco, and to New Mexico. Some departed to spend a few days with friends. What of those who remained? We had plenty of fun—of our own making. The foyer of the Residence Hall resounded to the strains of South American music to which we danced, not always in graceful or authentic style, or the tune would change to an old Scots air, or folk songs of many lands.

Life was free and easy. So nice to be able to go to bed in the early hours of the morning and to get up when you wished but not before! Meals were fun, too—much of our enjoyment lay in preparing them ourselves. We ate dishes prepared in South American, Chinese, and English styles, and the variety made it all the more interesting.

But perhaps the factor that contributed more than anything to our happiness was the wonderful friendliness of people here. Their kindness and generosity made us feel that we were after all not far from home, not strangers in a strange land, but among our own people. Santa Claus remembered us. Visitors would call and leave boxes of candy, cookies, and fruit for us. And imagine our surprise when we were awakened on Christmas morning by a kind lady, carrying a basket of parcels—a present for each of us.

Here we wish to thank all those people who made our Christmas so happy by their kindness in presenting us with candies and cookies, and by inviting us to their homes to share their Christmas and New Year festivities. This has been a Christmas which we will long remember, with gratitude and good will to our American friends.

Christmas in Hospital Was Enjoyed, Says Prexy

"The only thing that could have made my Christmas a greater success would have been my wife's being here and my not being in the hospital," President J. W. Jones said after he had spent the Christmas holidays in the St. Francis Hospital in Maryville.

On Christmas Day, thirty-five visitors were received by President Jones. Many organizations and friends sent flowers. Christmas cards and recovery cards were received by the dozens, according to the Prexy.

Christmas Eve, one of the Nurses' Aids at the hospital hung a stocking for the President and the following morning he said he found a penny, a knife, a ruler, and some nuts and candy. The Christmas dinner tray was decorated in the spirit of Christmas and the meal was very good. The food was also good during the entire three weeks, the President stated.

"My dinner on New Year's was brought to me by a visitor and a cake was provided by the Hospital, celebrating my thirty-first wedding anniversary," the Prexy said. The dinner with the cake was delicious, according to President Jones.

Broken ribs and bruises were suffered by the President in a recent automobile accident, making the hospital stay necessary.

Mrs. J. W. Jones returned home January 13 after spending several weeks with her mother who had been seriously ill.

College Men Become Vacation Mail Carriers

Although many college students spent their vacations traveling or catching up on sleep, six young men spent their vacation as mailmen. The part time postal employees hired to help with the Christmas rush were Dewey Drennen, Charles Scruby, Bill Elliott, George Watson, Roger Wren, and Bill Coulter.

Drennen and Scruby were the boys who spent the most time on their feet. They served as substitute carriers.

Elliott and Watson worked inside helping get the mail ready for the carriers or preparing it to be sent on to other towns.

Wren did some late evening doorbell ringing because of the fact that he was taking care of special deliveries.

Coulter worked in parcel post and was fortunate enough to have a truck to ride in most of the time.

College Alumni Have Interesting Careers

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ostrus, alumni of this College, are having an exciting and interesting experience in their musical careers in New York City.

On the December 29 issue of Newsweek magazine, Mr. Ostrus is pictured with a group from New York, singing Christmas hymns.

Mrs. Ostrus, Charlene Barnes before her marriage, tried out and succeeded in obtaining a position in a girls' octet for the new Billy Rose show at the Diamond Horseshoe. More than two hundred and fifty girls had tried out for the position. The octet will sing Strauss and Brahms with a forty piece orchestra and ballet team. Charlene is a contralto and is also an excellent pianist.

Mr. Ostrus, tenor, has written friends in Maryville that the week previous to Christmas he had made five radio broadcasts and one television appearance. One was the Robert Merrill ROA program on Sunday evening; another was the Paul Whiteman show on Monday evening.

Reverend Franklin Kohl Speaks at S. C. A. Meet

Rev. D. Franklin Kohl, minister of the First Christian Church, spoke to the Student Christian Association, Monday, January 12, on the subject "Let's Read." The address was the first of a series of talks on "Let's Do More Than Go to Church."

Rev. Kohl related the story of a student who was giving a talk to the faculty. The student said, "You have taught us how to read, you have taught us what we should read, but you have failed to make us want to read it." Rev. Kohl advocated reading the Bible completely through at least once each five years. He suggested that there are also many other good books which have a Christian background which will help in seeing the association between good reading and good living.

Business Teachers Meet Is Subject for Report

Pi Omega Pi met Tuesday, January 6, in the Den. Miss Helen Johnson reported to the group on the National Business Teachers Association Convention which she attended during the holidays. Another idea that was stressed was the responsibility that a commercial teacher has for teaching and offering practice in democratic ideals and processes.

Kappa Omicron Phi, national professional home economics fraternity, had its annual Founder's Day banquet, December 13, 1947, at the Home Management House from 6:00 to 9:00 p. m. The Christmas theme was carried out in the decorations.

Madge Miller, president of Alpha Chapter, presided over the candle-lighting ceremony following the dinner. Each chapter member lit a candle and gave a report of the founding of each of the twenty-two chapters in the U. S. Following this impressive ceremony, Patty Straight acted as Santa Claus in a gift exchange.

The following alumnae attended the banquet: Miss Flettie N. Anthony, president emerita; Dr. June Cozine, national president of Kappa Omicron Phi; Miss Mabel Cook, originator of the idea of the national fraternity; Miss Anna Houston, St. Joseph; Mrs. David Sutterlin, Maryville; Mrs. J. A. Anderson, Maryville; Mrs. John Schrier, Maryville; Mrs. Gerald Stagg, Dearborn; Miss Elsie Harryman, King City; Miss Sarah Espey, Tarkio; Miss Elaine Gersuch, Barnard; Mrs. Vivian Wilson Verdin, Kirksville; Miss Grace Tucker, supervisor of the Home Management House, was also a guest.

Those responsible for the banquet were as follows: general chairman, Shirley Burger; program, Madge Miller; Patty Straight, and Marilyn Partridge; decorations, Phyllis Combs, Irma Lee Hull, and Mrs. Mary Margaret Martin; food, Lavonne Wescott, Mary Loyce Rockwell, Virginia Snowberger; cleanup, Phyllis Butts.

Snow Is Theme of Dance Held by Delta Sigs

The Alpha Phi Chapter of the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority held a "Snow Festival" dance in Bearcat Den, Saturday evening, January 10.

Snow was scattered on the dance floor with a large snowman in the center. Smaller snowmen and piles of snowballs were in various places about the room.

In the lounge were tables and a place to obtain cokes, popcorn, and sandwiches. The tables and the counter were each decorated to represent a different snow scene.

A contest was held in which each was to name as many articles as possible that could be obtained in the bookstore. Harold Bakyr was the winner and is now the proud owner of a new car.

Miss Norma Jean Scowden was mistress of ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Surrey, Mrs. Ramona Canton, sponsor, and Miss Marilyn Fulkerson, co-sponsor, were the chaperones for the evening.

Roger Wren Is First Tau Father

Roger "Jenny" Wren, president of the local Sigma Tau Gamma chapter, and mayor of "Vel Village," was gayly passing out cigars at the first frat meeting after Christmas. Reason? "Jenny" had become a father Sunday night, and also gained the honor of being the only father among the active members of Sigma Tau Gamma.

Mrs. Harry Sheetz, dean of women at the College, resumed her duties on January 5. Mrs. Sheetz was confined to her home on December 13 because of scarlet fever, but was able to spend some of the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Curfman.

February Lectures Begin the First

Dr. Glenn C. Dildine, Educator, Is First Lecturer.

Dr. Glenn C. Dildine, associate professor of Education at the University of Delaware at Newark, will be on the College campus, February 1, to address students in the first of the February lectures.

"The Human Growth and Development Movement" will be the topic of Dr. Dildine's speech on Sunday afternoon at 4:00. His lecture will include a basic viewpoint toward and the present need for a science of man; some significant contributions from the various fields of knowledge; the unifying and directing effects of progressive synthesis of all such information; various present applications of the movement; and possible future extensions.

Dr. Dildine's studies and teachings have been numerous, interesting, and very beneficial in the fields of science and education.

Born in China, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Dildine, now of the College, he began his schooling in China. He was graduated from high school in 1925 and attended one semester of college at Yenching University with Chinese students. During this one semester he completed one year's work in college algebra and German.

On the basis of being valedictorian of his high school class he was awarded the Rector Scholarship to Depauw University at Greencastle, Indiana, U. S. A.

His graduation from Depauw in 1929 found him with a B. S. degree and a scholarship for zoology at Northwestern University, Chicago, Illinois.

Continuing his studies at Northwestern on a teaching fellowship until he earned his Ph. D., young Dr. Dildine remained on the faculty as zoology instructor for two years.

During the years between 1937 and 1947 Professor Dildine was head of the Science Division at the State Teachers' College at Moorhead, Minnesota. While there he was made chairman of the Inter-faculty Policies Commission of the Minnesota state teachers' colleges and worked with the state legislature in affairs of teachers' colleges.

He was released from Moorhead teaching for one year to do research on problems of the relation between zoology, psychology, and education.

It was after a year of research work in Chicago University that the Dean of the University of Delaware invited him to become associate professor in the school of education in that university, expecting him to develop courses from the research made at the University of Chicago.

Bearcats Open Home Stand Tomorrow Eve

Rockhurst Is Opponent, Miners and Bears Will Follow.

Beginning with the game tomorrow night against Rockhurst, the Maryville Bearcats defense-minded basketball team will open a three game home stand. Springfield will be here February 2, preceded by Rolla on January 31st. Both of the two former teams have been met by the 'Cats this year. They emerged victorious over Rockhurst's Hawks in a pre-Christmas tournament in Kansas City by the score of 45-35, but dropped a heart-breaking game at Springfield to the Bears, 33-31.

Rockhurst will bring a veteran quintet into town tomorrow. Sparked by Martel and Richter, and possessing two fine guards in Ryan and Fitzsimmons, the Hawks will be out to avenge the earlier defeat.

Rolla is unknown in conference play, although they did drop a game to Springfield, since they lost their all-conference center Tappmeyer by graduation. They will probably start Jenkins, Thrall, Perry, Breeze, and Volles, with Baker, Henson, Hughes, Niederstadt, Perino, and Roark seeing action.

Springfield should be in for a game when they meet the Bearcats here a week from Monday. Their narrow two point victory on their own court will be a much harder accomplishment away from home, and the 'Cats are smarting under the defeat. Victory over the Bears would have placed the local five back into the thick of conference play.

Probable starting lineup for the Bearcats: Younger and Wohlford at forwards, Glavin at center, Scott and Andrews at guards.

"M" Club Will Meet Phi Sigs

Preliminary to the varsity game tomorrow night against the Rockhurst Hawks, the "M" Club of the College will meet the Phi Sig second team, called the Outlaws. Both teams are members of the White league in intramural basketball play.

Maryville teams are faring well in basketball tournaments. Independent fives formed from intramural players ran second and third in a recent series at Conception.

NOTICE

Gymnasium and locker room facilities will be open for student use every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7:00 until 9:00 and each Saturday afternoon from 2:00 until 4:30 while school is in session.

The following activities will be enjoyed: volleyball, swimming, basketball, dancing, badminton, ping pong, gym games, snack bar, wrestling, boxing, weight lifting, and aerial tennis.

The pool will also be open for mixed swimming on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons from 4:00 to 5:30.

W. A. A. Will Have Two Basketball Divisions

W. A. A. held a short meeting Monday, January 12. The basketball season was planned and it was decided to have an "A" and a "B" division in the tournament. The "A" division is for experienced players and the "B" division is for those who do not feel they can compete in the "A" division.

All girls interested in basketball are urged to make up a team and enter the tournament.

The old members of W. A. A. are Wanda Ashford, Shirley Burton, Margaret Curry, Mary Lou Bilby, Arlene Davis, Lois Gordon, Irma Jensen, Meredee Myers, Beverly Osborn, Vee Oyerly, Margaret Teaford, Peggy Turner, Helen Fisher, Dorothy Smith, D. J. Masters, Dorothy Harshaw, Juanita Ford, and Mary Lee White.

The new members who have joined this year are Maureen Bird, Mary Booth, Margaret Bowness, Margaret Berry, Lois Easton, Dorothy Hunzinger, Lou Ann Rhoads, Julia Sheumaker, Carolyn Steele, Joyce Werhli, Charlene Harman, Mary Linville, Patsy Hagee, Ruth Steubi, Lila Green, Jo Stafford, Frances Huntsman, and Charlotte Turner.

The officers of W. A. A. include Lois Gordon, president; Dorothy June Masters, vice president; Peggy Turner, reporter; Mary Bilby, secretary; Vee Oyerly, treasurer; and Arlene Davis, historian.

Win Over Jewell Precedes Loss to Benedict Ravens.

William Jewell College went down to the hands of the Northwest Missouri Bearcats by a count of 49-20 and the St. Benedict Ravens defeated the Maryville team 55-45 in recent games played by Coach Ryan Milner's cagers. Maryville won on the home court and was defeated in Atchison, Kansas.

Pete Younger carried the Bearcat team to the victory over Jewell with five field goals and six free throws. Don Scott, who scored seven points in the Jewell game, led the Northwest Missouri team with five field goals, and four charity tosses in the Raven game. Gene Ceglinski was second high for Coach Milner's team with seven points in the Benedict game.

Maryville played a good floor game against Jewell and at the half were out in front by a count of 17-9. They were never headed by the Cardinals and walked off the floor with the victory. John Wohlford played a good defensive game as he held the star of the Cards' team to 12 points, most of them in the closing minutes. Norman Short, the Cardinal star, has been averaging between 15 and 20 points a game.

George Wendell and Ken Werba led the Atchison team to victory over the Bearcats when they scored fifteen and thirteen points respectively. The Bearcats were outplayed and the game was rough.

Bearcats Lose Two Conference Games

Drop League Road Tilts, 33-31 to Bears, 46-36 to Mules.

The Maryville Bearcats returned home from a road trip to Springfield and Warrensburg on which they dropped both conference games. Playing Saturday night at Warrensburg the 'Cats were defeated 46-36 in their poorest exhibition of the week.

Springfield defeated the Maryville Bearcats at Springfield, 33-31, as Bear forward Don Ferrell led the scoring with 14 points. It was the second loss in the conference that week for the Bearcats.

Monday night the local quintet fell victim to a fast breaking, sharp-shooting band from Ottawa, 47-36. The Bearcats simply fell apart in the closing ten minutes before the superior accuracy of the invaders.

In the Springfield game Glavin led the Maryville team with ten points. Scott hit eleven against Warrensburg to take honors, and Wohlford made nine against Ottawa to lead the scoring of the 'Cats.

Random Shots . . .

Vernon Weidmaier, who coaches part time at Burlington high school, is enjoying a successful season in basketball so far this winter. His team broke Clearmont's winning streak at 15 last week by beating them 30 to 26.

Four Bearcats of last year's football team are to be congratulated. During the holidays, Art Snodgrass and Maury Geist, both of Red Oak, Iowa, were married, while Jenny Wren and Bruce Peters became fathers of baby girls.

One almost has an optical illusion when looking at the Bearcat basketball uniforms this year. The officials should never have trouble with identity when the 'Cats take the floor.

Speaking of officials, we know several men in school who are officiating basketball this winter, in and around Maryville, and doing a favorable job according to all reports.

The "M" Club has proposed a new setup for awards for three major sports. From now on lettermen in basketball, football, or track will receive the same type of sweater or jacket.

Freshman Red Sweat, promising football and basketball player from the state of Florida, did not return to school after the holidays and his buddy, "Slim" Tanner, says he won't be back. It was a woman, we betcha.

Pete Younger, rugged Bearcat forward, seems to have found his scoring stride this year and also is giving the opposition a fit with his rebounding.

The intramural program is in full swing with the interest running high. Some of the basketball teams in the intramural league are even sporting new uniforms of one style or another. The Phi Sigs look like

Ag Club Plans Judging Contest for Mid-April

The Ag Club is making plans for a livestock judging contest to be held in mid-April. The contest will be for members only and their judgment will be compared with that of the official judge.

Judging will be classified into three groups: hogs, sheep, and beef cattle. A prize will be given to the person having the most points. There will be a trophy given as grand prize to the person having the most over-all points. The club also expects to have a dinner at which the prizes will be awarded.

Staff sponsors, F. Houghton and R. T. Wright, and President Bill Bowness predict this event to be the high light in the club's year.

Brazil became independent in 1823.

"M" Club Men Are Santa's Helpers

"M" Club members aided the city police in directing traffic and 1,700 Nodaway county school children the afternoon of December 15 as they crowded the main section of town.

What was the occasion? Santa Claus had come to town! During the parade of Santa's train, the high school band, and the truck carrying Santa, his reindeer, and bear "Jimmy," eight lettermen were kept quite busy.

As the parade got off to a "bang-up" start "M" Club boys all thought some one was after them until they found out it was only the clown in the parade with a toy gun.

Who wants to ride on Santa's Special Zephyr? The "M" Club boys, naturally!

Pat Zuchowski was seen holding in his arms a beautiful blonde that she might be able to see Santa—she was about two years old.

Bruce Peters, president of the club, was supposed to be one of "Santa's Police," but he was seen being led around by six young boys. Maybe he was on his way to get a ride or a sack of candy.

"If you want help just go right over there to Vernon Weidmaier," Pat Zuchowski told the kiddies.

No matter how tough a football player may be, when it was announced that treats were to be given out to the children, lettermen were heard saying, "Let me out of the way!"

Those assisting and wearing green and white bands around their arms saying "Santa's Police" were Vernon Weidmaier, Harold (Swede) Johnson, "Buck" Logan, Don Snyder, Pat Zuchowski, Jim Smith, Jon Wohlford, and Paul Gates.

Intramural Basketball Standings Are Announced

This year, because of the large number of entries, intramural basketball has been divided into three leagues and the standing thus far in each is as follows.

Blue League	Won	Lost
All States	4	0
Jelly Beans	4	1
Towagians	3	1
Mighty Whites	1	2
Wolves	1	2
Ice Breakers	0	3
Rockets	0	4

Red League	Won	Lost
Tan Trotters	4	0
Phi Sigs	3	0
Green Hornets	3	1
A. P. O. Buzzards	2	2
Red Sox	1	2
Tigers	0	3
Ag Club	0	4

The three leading scorers of each league are as follows: Blue League, Pat Zuchowski, 60 points; Jack Milligan, 55 points; Carmichael, 50 points. White League, Walker, 84 points; Stanton, 60 points; Thompson, 38. Red League, George Watson, 46 points; Shuneman, 44 points; and Bob Anderson, last year's leading scorer, 36 points.

Mixed Volleyball Play Begins in Two Leagues

This year, on Tuesday and Thursday recreation nights, a new volleyball league will play. There will be a six team league called the Green League and a five team league called the White League. One of the teams entered will be composed of faculty members.

There will be three games played each Tuesday and Thursday. The league got under way, January 15, with these teams in action.

7:00 Phi Trigs vs. Independents
7:45 Faculty vs. College Heights
8:30 Lambs and Wolves vs. Tri-Tris

The league will be made up of four independent teams of college students. The Phi Sigs and the Tri Sigs have joined forces to form another team, The Sig Taus and the Alpha Sigs have organized another club. Vet's Village will play with a team made up of husbands and wives.

Regular men's volleyball rules will be in effect except that the girls will be allowed the double touch rule as in their game. It will be the best 'em' out of three—fifteen point games. Four boys and four girls will go together to make a team.

Kardex File Is Serving Library Students Now

A new Kardex file, an improved method of listing magazines, is now installed at the index table in the main reading room of the library.

The installation of the new system eliminates the old and cumbersome method of searching through typed lists of bound and current magazines to determine which issues are possessed by the library.

Under the present system the user has only to look in one place to find out which volumes are in the library, and which volumes are bound.

Lists are in alphabetical order, and are used like a dictionary. The explanation of the symbols used on the guide cards is found printed on the top of the file case.

Anyone desiring further explanation of the use of the file may ask help from any staff member.

The average American used nearly 250 pounds of paper in 1945.

Beverly Osburn Manages Basketball in W. A. A.

The women's athletic association has drawn to a close its softball season managed by Meredee Myers, and is looking forward to basketball for the winter quarter. All basketball enthusiasts are urged to come Monday night at 7:00. The girls will be organized in teams which will play a tournament this quarter.

The games will be every Monday night from seven to nine. Beverly Osburn is to be manager of the basketball season.

W. A. A. has been changed from Thursday to Monday night to permit those interested to participate in the intramural volleyball tournaments on Thursday nights. Arrangements will be made for those having other meetings on Monday night by seeing Beverly Osborn.

out that European recovery is lost if Germany is turned into a poor-house.

Murdered Own People
Schuschnigg said he was opposed to the "collective guilt" theory of the German nation, although there was no exaggeration in the reports of punishment administered in concentration camps. He pointed out that Hitler murdered and imprisoned his own people whom he disfavored, and explained that the German nation as a whole could not be considered a political entity. He recalled that the German philosopher, Kant was the first to suggest a league of nations form of international government and that German culture had given the world masterpieces of music, art and literature, all for the purpose of bettering mankind.

Schuschnigg said that economic infiltration of Central Europe would lead to governmental regulation. He pointed out the only real stable money in Europe is "Lucky Strikes, Camels, Chesterfield, and so forth."

Aid Pressing Problem
He said twenty cigarettes are worth $2.50 in U. S. money; fifteen would buy a pound of coffee; 250 cigarettes would purchase a pound of butter; and 8,000 cigarettes would buy an ounce of penicillin.

"Aid through the winter is the pressing problem now," Schuschnigg said, but there is no hope for smaller European nations if they should fall to get economic and political cooperation, our first problem is to feed, heat, and clothe our people. The Austrians realize that they are alive today because of the U. S. A., therefore they are pro-Marshall plan.

It is our only ray of hope and if it will force Europe into production and industrialization, it is a tremendous progression.

He said that Central Europeans are nervous because they fear that the U. S. will become disinterested, but that an American aid is an investment which will pay for itself in the advancement of American democratic ideals. He said the two world wars have paved the way toward world wide understanding and the peace must prove that material losses were not entirely in vain.

In concluding his speech, Schuschnigg referred to Woodrow Wilson's 1913 address, "must restore and not destroy, this is not a day of triumph

Kirkville Defeats Local Five, 35-19

Low Scoring Game Finds Bearcat Defense Capable.

Playing a game of keep-away for nearly a whole ball game the Maryville Bearcats nearly pulled one of the biggest upsets of the year against the Kirkville Bulldogs Wednesday night in the College gym.

The Miller-coached men played on even terms with the Kirkville giants, who were favored to defeat them by an overwhelming score until the last eight minutes of the game when Kirkville moved ahead to win 35-19.

Playing a superb defensive game the Bearcats held Kirkville to the lowest score they have collected during the past two years.

Harry Gallatin, Kirkville's star 6' 8" center, took scoring honors in the contest collecting thirteen points on three field goals and several free throws.

Howard Glavin made six points and led the Bearcats.
